JOHN WILSON DESIGN RECOMMENDATIONS (FREELACE)

ETHAN ZON
Director of Client Services
InField Marketing Group
(Freelance Client)

“I needed someone to do some design work for me in January 2012 and was referred to John by a colleague and have since called on him numerous times. After a quick phone call, where he asked all the right questions, John was able to take our concept and bring it to life with minimal changes required. He works within reasonable timelines and communicates very well, which made the whole process very easy. His creativity is apparent, but most of all, John “gets it”. He’s been great to work with so far and I look forward to future projects together.” February 23, 2012
